

Dutch Language Acquisition and Language & Literature Teacher (whole school)

Part-time/full-time

This is a leave replacement position and we are seeking to appoint an outstanding IB-trained teacher of Dutch Language Acquisition and Language and Literature for August 2020. This position can be separated in to two part time roles for the right candidates.

Expectation

The Teachers' primary responsibility is towards the students whose best interests they work for and promote. They must do everything they can to ensure every student fulfils their potential. In addition, by being a member of the Amity community, they commit themselves to promoting the values and philosophy of the school as well as the IB. Just as the school has a responsibility for them, they also have a responsibility to work in the school's best interests, to promote its good name, support its members and act in a collegiate manner. Lastly, teachers have a responsibility to strive to achieve the highest professional standards in all they do.

Teachers at Amity International School are committed to:

- High quality teaching practice
- Creating dynamic learning environments
- Collaborating on the development and evolution of our curriculum
- Building positive relationships with students, staff and parents

The successful applicant will have a strong understanding of the needs of primary and senior education. He/she will have the capability to deliver a high standard of education aligned with the School's Mission, Vision and Values delivered via the International Baccalaureate's Primary Years Programme (IB PYP) for Dutch Language Acquisition and International Baccalaureate's Middle Years Programme (IB MYP) for Language and Literature for which we are a candidate school.

The ideal candidate for this role must have the following skills, experience and qualifications:

- A minimum 4-year recognised teaching qualification, including a Bachelor's Degree and PGCE or equivalent teaching diploma (e.g. B.Ed.)
- Minimum 3 years teaching experience
- Experience of the International Baccalaureate Primary Years Programme (IB PYP) is highly desirable
- Ability to teach in both the Primary and Middle School
- Experience teaching first and second language learners
- Excellent fluency in English (verbal and written)
- Mother-tongue Dutch speaker
- An innovator, committed to learning and up-to-date with current research
- An inspiring, challenging and empowering educational motivator

- Visible, approachable, with excellent interpersonal skills and a good sense of humour
- Flexible, creative and resilient
- An excellent communicator and able to build on the reputation of the school
- A role model for the entire school community in terms of school ethos
- A passion for and deep understanding of internationalism and international education

Remuneration

We are offering a competitive salary to successful candidates. If you are internationally minded, permitted to work in the European Union and have the desire to help shape the exciting future of our school, we would be delighted to hear from you.

Who is Amity?

Established more than 25 years ago, the not-for-profit Amity Education Group has an enrolment of 150,000 students, 4500 faculty, 17 top-ranked schools and pre-schools, 5 universities with campuses in Dubai, Abu Dhabi, India, London, Singapore, Mauritius, China and Romania, offering globally benchmarked education from nursery to Ph.D. level. Amity International School Amsterdam is the company's flagship European school.

Amity International School Amsterdam is an educational institution in a scale-up phase. Whilst having big ambitions for the future, the school is operating on a small scale at the present time. Our vision is: Empowering each individual to thrive and make a positive difference. How will you make a difference?

To apply

Please click on the APPLY NOW button on the Amity Amsterdam career page to complete our online application form and upload your CV and Supporting Statement.

- CV or Resume (max 2 sides of A4)
- Cover Letter (max 2 sides of A4)

Please apply before 31st July 2020

Safeguarding

Amity Schools are committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff, volunteers and other third parties to share this commitment. Safer recruitment practice and pre-employment background checks will be undertaken before any appointment is confirmed.